

Monsignor Romero and You: Transforming Our Reality

Language: Spanish

Duration: 2 sections (1.5 hours each)

Format: Virtual (Zoom)

Participants: General public, community leaders, students, and those interested in Monsignor Romero's legacy.

Description: This course seeks not only to inform but also to inspire participants to live with justice, compassion, and commitment, following Monsignor Romero's legacy. Monsignor Óscar Romero left a legacy of social justice, love for those most in need, and commitment to the truth. Applying his teachings today implies living with courage, empathy, and a firm defense of human rights.

Course Objectives:

- To learn about the life and legacy of Monsignor Óscar Romero.
- To reflect on his teachings and values.
- To apply his principles to daily life and social commitment.

Course Structure:

1. Introduction

- Welcome and introduction of participants.
- Brief biography of Monsignor Romero (his life, historical context, and martyrdom).
- Importance of his message today.

2. Key Teachings of Monsignor Romero

- Defense of human rights and social justice.
- Love and commitment to those most in need.
- Active faith: the call to be agents of change.
- The importance of truth and denouncing injustice.
- Testimonies and inspirational quotes.

3. Reflection and Personal Application

Reflection questions:

How does Monsignor Romero's message resonate in your life?

What changes can you make to live his values in your community?

Small groups work to share experiences and concrete actions.

Examples of social initiatives inspired by his legacy.

4. Closing and Commitments

Invitation to a personal or community commitment based on his teachings.

Closing remarks and brief course evaluation.

Materials and Resources:

- PowerPoint presentation with key images and quotes.
- Short videos about Archbishop Romero.
- PDF reflection guide for participants.
- Space for questions and answers.

Methodology:

- Active participation with questions and discussions.
- Use of personal testimonies and experiences.
- Small group work.
- Space to share final reflections.

Monseñor Romero y Tú: Transformando Nuestra Realidad

Idioma: Espanol

Duracion: 2 secciones (1.5 horas cada seccion)

Formato: Virtual (Zoom)

Participantes: Público general, líderes comunitarios, estudiantes, personas interesadas en el legado de Monseñor Romero.

Descripcion: Este curso busca no solo informar, sino inspirar a los participantes a vivir con justicia, compasión y compromiso, siguiendo el legado de Monseñor Romero. Monseñor Óscar Romero dejó un legado de justicia social, amor por los más necesitados y compromiso con la verdad. Aplicar sus enseñanzas hoy en día implica vivir con valentía, empatía y una firme defensa de los derechos humanos

Objetivos del Curso:

- Conocer la vida y legado de Monseñor Óscar Romero.
- Reflexionar sobre sus enseñanzas y valores.
- Aplicar sus principios a la vida cotidiana y el compromiso social.

Estructura del Curso:

1. Introducción

- Bienvenida y presentación de los participantes.
- Breve biografía de Monseñor Romero (su vida, contexto histórico y martirio).
- Importancia de su mensaje en la actualidad.

2. Enseñanzas Claves de Monseñor Romero

- Defensa de los derechos humanos y la justicia social.
- Amor y compromiso con los más necesitados.
- Fe activa: el llamado a ser agentes de cambio.
- La importancia de la verdad y la denuncia de la injusticia.
- Testimonios y frases inspiradoras.

3. Reflexión y Aplicación Personal

Preguntas de reflexión:

¿Cómo resuena el mensaje de Monseñor Romero en tu vida?

¿Qué cambios puedes hacer para vivir sus valores en tu comunidad?

Trabajo en grupos pequeños para compartir experiencias y acciones concretas.

Ejemplo de iniciativas sociales inspiradas en su legado.

4. Cierre y Compromisos

Invitación a un compromiso personal o comunitario basado en sus enseñanzas.

Despedida y evaluación breve del curso.

Materiales y Recursos:

Presentación en PowerPoint con imágenes y citas clave.

Videos cortos sobre Monseñor Romero.

Guía de reflexión en PDF para los participantes.

Espacio para preguntas y respuestas.

Metodología:

Participación activa con preguntas y debates.

Uso de testimonios y experiencias personales.

Trabajo en pequeños grupos.

Espacio para compartir reflexiones finales.

Monsignor Romero and You: Transforming Our Reality

Language: Spanish

Duration: 2 sections (1.5 hours each)

Format: Virtual (Zoom)

Participants: General public, community leaders, students, and those interested in Monsignor Romero's legacy.

Description: This course seeks not only to inform but also to inspire participants to live with justice, compassion, and commitment, following Monsignor Romero's legacy. Monsignor Óscar Romero left a legacy of social justice, love for those most in need, and commitment to the truth. Applying his teachings today implies living with courage, empathy, and a firm defense of human rights.

Course Objectives:

- To learn about the life and legacy of Monsignor Óscar Romero.
- To reflect on his teachings and values.

- To apply his principles to daily life and social commitment.

Course Structure:

1. Introduction

- Welcome and introduction of participants.
- Brief biography of Monsignor Romero (his life, historical context, and martyrdom).
- Importance of his message today.

2. Key Teachings of Monsignor Romero

- Defense of human rights and social justice.
- Love and commitment to those most in need.
- Active faith: the call to be agents of change.
- The importance of truth and denouncing injustice.
- Testimonies and inspirational quotes.

3. Reflection and Personal Application

Reflection questions:

How does Monsignor Romero's message resonate in your life?

What changes can you make to live his values in your community?

Small group work to share experiences and concrete actions.

Examples of social initiatives inspired by his legacy.

4. Closing and Commitments

Invitation to a personal or community commitment based on his teachings.

Closing remarks and brief course evaluation.

Materials and Resources:

PowerPoint presentation with key images and quotes.

Short videos about Archbishop Romero.

PDF reflection guide for participants.

Space for questions and answers.

Methodology:

Active participation with questions and discussions.

Use of personal testimonies and experiences.

Small group work.

Space to share final reflections.